

Vacancy announcement

MDF Training and Consultancy, a leading international management training and consultancy organization, is looking for an experienced international trainer for its branch office in Hanoi.

To cater to the demand of our clients MDF Indochina is currently seeking to fill the following position:

International senior trainer for Management skills and Leadership

With the following qualifications

- Masters degree in a relevant field
- Solid experiences in the international development , preferably combined with experienced in the private sector
- Solid training and consultancy experience, with emphasis on Management skills, Human resources management and leadership.
- Experience in the Vietnamese/ South-east Asia context
- Analytical and empathic
- Excellent communication and facilitation skills
- Open-minded and interactive
- Able to work independently as well as in a team;
- Excellent command of English (speaking and writing)
- Willing to travel at least three months per year (national and international)

We offer:

- An inspiring working environment in an international context;
- A relatively small team in the Hanoi office and being part of the larger MDF group (over 80 colleagues in total) – enabling environment for joint assignment, cross exchanges, mutual learning;
- Remuneration in accordance with MDF Indochina terms and conditions for trainers and consultants and contingent upon qualifications and experience.

Interested candidates are invited to send their CV's (with two references) and a cover letter, by e-mail only, to:

MDF Indochina
Att. Ms Pui Yee Chan, director
mdfic@mdf.nl

Deadline: 15th of June 2013.

Candidates will be informed about the process before the 1st of July 2013.

For more information about MDF, please visit our website: <http://www.mdf.nl>