

ICPN Safeguarding Children Training

Monday 24th – Wednesday 26th February 2014

British Vietnamese International School, Royal City Campus
Hanoi, Vietnam

This event is supported by the British Embassy Hanoi and funded by the British Foreign & Commonwealth Office

Do you:

- Work directly with children and young people in Vietnam?
- Want to reinforce your understanding of the fundamental principals of child protection?
- Want to gain an understanding of child sexual exploitation on and offline?
- Want to better understand the risk-taking behaviour of children?
- Want to understand what you can do to help children stay safe on and offline?

ICPN Safeguarding Children Training (train to deliver)

NCA-CEOP's Safeguarding Children training will equip those who work directly with children and young people to:

- ◇ Understand the context of child sexual exploitation both on and offline in Vietnam
- ◇ Deliver a 45 minute lesson plan to children, young people and parents supported by NCA-CEOP educational resources
- ◇ Raise awareness to other appropriate colleagues
- ◇ Empower children and young people to stay safe

Delivered by NCA-CEOP's child protection specialists and local subject matter experts, this course is designed to be a practical training session giving you both the background knowledge and access to resources to build in-to your own educational work.

Who can attend?

- ⇒ Anyone working directly with children and young people, to include but not limited to teachers, staff of children's charities and NGOs, social workers, government education professionals
