

CALL FOR ABSTRACT

ABSTRACT TOPIC AREAS

You are invited to submit papers in the form of research results, practical services or case studies related disability to our abstract review committee. As our strong voice on the ability to work of PWDs therefore the topics could be related to the area of employment and all related as the following but not limited to below categories;

- Policy: promoting on employment, supporting PWDs quality of life, levy&fine, incentive, public service transformation, public-private partnership
- PWDs Capacity building: education, training, rehabilitation and vocational training, capacity building service, shelter workshop
- Competitive PWDs Employment: customization employment, job and work modification, job placement and supporting work&life system
- Business opportunities: cases studies, creating share value, CSR, new market segment of PWDs
- Technology: Assistive technology and innovation
- Social Entrepreneurships: Social enterprise practice and supporting eco system, corporate partnership, venture and investment, capacity building and market access

ABSTRACT FORMAT AND PRESENTER PROFILE

The abstract must be submitted in English and should be 300 – 450 words, with Times New Roman 12 point font. Abstract will be assessed for suitability for inclusion by a peer review panel. It is anticipated that presentations will present in English and generally be 15-30 minutes in length.

Enter author's name with complete education and title. Ex: John Smith Ph.D., Associate Professor.

Specify status "student" in case you are a student that is presenting a paper as part of completing a thesis. Specify "professional" otherwise.

SUBMISSION OF ABSTRACTS AND ENQUIRIES

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: 1Apr – 15 May 2015

Abstracts must be submitted according to deadline to website www.workabilityasiaconference.com or may be submitted electronically to

Email: workabilityasiaconference@gmail.com , as an email attachment.

For more information please contact Ms.Sakulthip Kiratiphantawong, Secretary of Workability Thailand, Phone: +661 623 3001 Email: workabilitythailand@gmail.com

Download Paper and document Guidelines and Template