

Disaster Preparedness Forum 2015

Creating Value Through Strategic Partnerships

02 July 2015 | Hanoi, Vietnam

Leaders from the business, government, humanitarian and non-government sectors will gather on 02 July 2015 for the third Disaster Preparedness Forum at the Melia Hotel, Hanoi, Vietnam.

The one day programme will:

-  Build an understanding of the humanitarian system and the role of business in building disaster preparedness beyond business boundaries
-  Provide best practice examples and explore how effective partnerships can build community preparedness and create value for all stakeholders
-  Connect business, humanitarian and government leaders with the aim to support the creation of new partnerships

Speakers for the Forum include:

Donald Kanak,
Chairman,
Prudential Corporation Asia

Jagan Chapagain,
Director, Asia Pacific,
International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent
Societies (IFRC)

Joey Sarte Salceda,
Governor of Albay Province,
Philippines

Nick Finney ,
Acting Regional Director,
SE & E Asia Region,
Save the Children

Oliver Lacey-Hall,
Regional Director for Asia-Pacific,
UN Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs
(UNOCHA)

Pham Ngoc Van Giang,
Country Manager of Corporate Citizenship and
Corporate Affairs,
IBM Vietnam

Ramon Reinoso Isberto,
Head of Public Affairs,
Philippine Long Distance
Telephone Company (PLDT)

Richard Welford,
Chairman,
CSR Asia

For more details on the speaker line-up and agenda please visit: www.csr-asia.com/dpforum2015

For registration and further information please contact Vicky Chan dpforum@csr-asia.com