

Apply to be a Global Health Corps fellow!

Be part of a new breed of leaders who are ready to change the world.

Global Health Corps is building a community of committed young leaders who share a common belief: Health is a human right. Serve in a position of impact in a paid year-long fellowship with an outstanding organization in Burundi, Malawi, Rwanda, Uganda, Zambia or the United States. Engage in training, professional development and mentorship, and build a community of partners.

Previous one-year paid fellowship opportunities include:

- Access to Medicines Analyst at Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI) in Uganda
- Operations and Program Coordinator at Partners In Health in Malawi
- Maternal and Child Health Monitoring and Evaluation Fellow, Ministry of Health in Rwanda
- Social Protection and Health Fellow at the Inter-American Development Bank in Washington, D.C.

"The GHC Fellowship was an awesome transformative experience and was an enormous determinant in both the direction and quality of my career."

- Dezio Macheso, 2011-2012 Fellow. Currently Programs Officer for Youth Reproductive Health, National Youth Council of Malawi

You must be 30 or younger, have an undergraduate university degree by July 2014, and be proficient in English to apply.

Applications close
January 26, 2014
