Introduction of HSU Center for Service- Learning

INTRODUCTION

HSU Center for Service-Learning (CSL) was established in March 2015 with the mission of integrating Service-Learning component into University's curriculum. CSL is the first center in Vietnam that founded with the purpose of integrating SL into Higher Education's program.

The establishment of CSL aligns with HSU's mission:

“TO LIVE AS ONE SHOULD, TO STUDY AS ONE MUST AND TO SEE ONESELF AS PART OF THE WORLD”.

Vision & Mission

Vision:

The HSU Center for Service-Learning promotes Service-Learning projects in all disciplines at Hoa Sen University, making Hoa Sen a leading institution in quality teaching and community service.

Mission:

- Providing support to faculty, including training workshops and other supporting activities, in the implementation of Service-Learning projects.
- Liaising with community partners (NGOS, service agencies, Social Entrepreneurs, Not-for-profit organizations) to develop suitable projects for faculty staff and students.
- Liaising with funding agencies and donors.
- Collaborating with other universities, both local and global, to implement inter-institutional Service-Learning projects
