

The Norwegian Mission Alliance in Vietnam (NMAV) is based in Ho Chi Minh City. Our main areas are Climate Change Resilience, income generation and inclusion of people with disabilities. NMAV operates in Mekong with special attention to poor women, children, youth and people with disabilities. Our projects are implemented in close cooperation with local authorities, partners and beneficiaries.

The Mission Alliance was established in 1901 in Norway. The Norwegian Mission Alliance in Vietnam (NMAV) is under the long-term framework agreement between Mission Alliance and DIGNI/ NORAD 2023-2027 and has stable funding.

NMA-V invites applications from highly qualified Vietnamese nationals for a position as:

Climate Change project officer

Do you have good understanding about community development and how climate change effects people in Vietnam? Do you have knowledge about local government policies, regulations and strategies on climate change? Do you want to be involved in building climate change resilience for the most vulnerable communities in Mekong? Then we want to hear from you!

The main responsibility:

The climate change project officer has the responsibility to manage several outputs of climate change resilience projects in the Mekong Delta provinces. The project officer will participate in strategic project planning, budgeting, and M&E. The Project Officer is part of our project operational team and will also interact with income generation and inclusion programs.

Requirement:

- Minimum of BA in environmental science, social science or other relevant fields
- At least three years of relevant working experience and project management. In exceptional circumstances candidates with less than three years' experience may be considered.
- Experience working with community sustainable development and participatory approaches, result based management targeting vulnerable groups, CBOs, mass organizations and local government. Experience from working with local communities in the Mekong Delta will be an advantage.
- Efficient, reliable, able to work independently and in teams.
- Fluent oral and written communication skills in Vietnamese and English

The position is located in Ho Chi Minh City. Frequent traveling to Mekong Delta must be expected.
Expected starting date: As soon as possible

Submit application (max one page) and CV (max two pages) to tunguyen@nmav.org by 21st July 2023. For more information go to www.nmav.org or contact Huong, program coordinator for Mission Alliance, mobile 0977 049 979