Towards Transparency (TT) is a progressive Vietnamese non-profit and non- government consulting organization that was established in 2008. TT's vision is to contribute to national efforts in preventing and fighting against corruption and promote transparency and accountability in Vietnam. In March 2009, TI became the official contact of Transparency International (TI) in Vietnam. In this capacity, TT supports the TI Secretariat in Berlin in coordinating the TI Vietnam Programme "Strengthening Anti-corruption Demands from Society, Public and Private Sectors, 2009-2012".

A specific project on "Promoting Greater Integrity amongst Vietnamese Youth" was initiated as part of the TI Vietnam Programme. The project was formulated in response to a growing recognition in Vietnam of the importance of ensuring enhanced citizens' and society participation in the promotion transparency and anti corruption as reflected in the recent national legal framework. This includes, for example, the Prime Minister's decision number 137/2009/QD-TTg issued on 2/9/2009, to introduce anti-corruption courses into an education and training curriculum; and the Government Decree 47/2007/ND-CP issued on 27/3/2007, detailing and guiding society's role and responsibilities in combating corruption.
