

Mainstreaming

16 - 19 October, 2017 in Hanoi, Vietnam

Why this course?

People with disability in developing countries are struggling in their daily living despite all their hard work and efforts. They are normally ignored or excluded from economic and development activities, and even from equality of access to basic services.

This training will help you understand about disability in both development and human rights aspects. You will learn practical steps to embed disability in your projects and organisations, and familiarize yourself with requirements from donors with regards to inclusion.

What will you gain?

- Identify and address the barriers that exclude persons with disabilities from innovative development;
- Analyse the disability inclusive factor in your own organization;
- Embed disability in your projects and organisations;
- Develop action plan for your own project.

Accreditations

Our ISO 9001 certification ensures that we apply a suite of widely recognized and professionally accepted management systems that are robust and reliable.

Your profile

- You are a professional in development sector and dealing with project design, management, monitoring and evaluation.
- You know about disability and inclusiveness but would like to make it practical.
- You work for both mainstream organisations and disability specific organisations.
- You do not work with people with disabilities but want to make their projects inclusive.

"We strongly believe that through learning individuals can be empowered to become agents of change and innovation within their organisation and society."

Disability Mainstreaming

What will you expect?

- Day 1 Introduction to the disability terms and concepts. Analyse the contexts of disability in development. Learn about the dynamics of exclusion.
- Day 2 Understand what disability mainstreaming entails. Introduction to project cycle. Discuss about policy setting in a DM project.
- Day 3 Understand the formulation, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of a DM project. Discuss the final evaluation of a DM project.
- Day 4 Map the policy process. Learn to deliver the message. Understand the criteria of a disability inclusive organization. Assess your own organization.
