

TENTATIVE PROGRAM

WARMING UP FOR COP26

Climate Resilient and Sustainable Development of Vietnam Mekong Delta

Ha Noi, 20th October 2021

Activity	Content	Speaker
1	Registration and checking-in	Oganizers
Session 1 - Welcome and opening
2	Welcome remarks by the co-chairs and explanation of the objectives of the event in opening speeches	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - MONRE's Vice Minister or Director General of Department of Climate Change, MONRE (tbc) - Christoph Prommersberger, Chargé d' Affairs, Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands - Van Ngoc Think, Country Director WWF
Session 2 – Keynote speeches Vietnam efforts in climate change adaptation
3	Code Red: we have to adapt!	Jaime de Bourbon Parma, climate envoy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands
4	Main features of Climate Change Adaptation in the draft of National Strategy on Climate Change (2021-2050)	Huynh Thi Lan Huong, Deputy Director of the Institute of Meteorology, Hydrology and Climate Change (IMHEN), MONRE
5	The green way forward: agricultural transformation	Francisco Pichon, Country Director IFAD
Video clip on digitalization and salinity intrusion in the Mekong Delta
6	The blue-green way forward: Nature-based Solutions	Marc Goichot, Lead Freshwater Asia Pacific
7	The blue way forward: Towards sustainable and fair water footprints	Nick Hepworth, Foreign Commonwealth and Development Office, UK
8	The silver lining: climate finance	World Bank
9	Discussion	All participants
Session 3 - Closing Remark
10	Closing remarks	Director General of Department of Climate Change, MONRE / Giorgio Aliberti, EU Ambassador (tbc)