

Human Resources Business Partner – Asia and Middle East

- Regional HR role covering Asia and the Middle East
- 12 Month Fixed term contract
- Busy and diverse role working across 10 countries

Come and join our international development organisation where we are working to eradicate avoidable blindness by 2020, and are committed to working with partners to bring about change that is sustainable and reaches even the most vulnerable communities. We have an ambitious 5 year strategic plan that aims to take The Foundation even closer to realising our vision of ending avoidable blindness.

Reporting to the Global Lead, People and Development, in Sydney, the People Partner Asia and Middle East is responsible for providing a high standard of operational HR advice and support for people managers and employees across the Asia and Middle East regions. Working closely with our country managers, you will oversee the effective implementation of global HR policies, systems, initiatives that support our operations. This role will support six countries in East Asia (Vietnam, Cambodia, China, Laos, Indonesia, Philippines) and four countries in South Asia/ Middle East (Pakistan, Bangladesh, Myanmar and Nepal).

To be successful in this role, you will have previous experience working as a HR business partner within an international context. You will be able to demonstrate your ability to implement global policies at a local level, advising and influencing across a diverse range of cultures. You will have highly developed interpersonal skills coupled with strong planning, prioritization and organisational skills. Your positive disposition, energy and commitment will be crucial. The ideal candidate will have had experience navigating a central headquarters while being able to deliver to the business locally.

This role will require frequent travel across the region, therefore to be eligible to apply you must be able to access all 10 countries within the region. Ideally located in Hong Kong, Vietnam, Cambodia or the Philippines.
