

Project Manager

Kenan Foundation Asia is a knowledge and capacity building organization implementing results-oriented, social and economic development programming on a not-for-profit basis. With offices in Bangkok and Hanoi, we conduct activities in Cambodia, Lao PDR, Myanmar, Thailand, and Vietnam, as well as regional activities in Southeast Asia. Kenan approaches key development challenges in the region through an innovative, market-based approach, harnessing the resources and expertise of the private sector and the experience and knowledge of the public and civil society sectors to address key issues in business and economic development, education, and public health. Kenan provides its corporate, government, and multilateral clients with services including consulting, project design, management and implementation, training, and research.

We are seeking a qualified candidate for the position of Project Manager to lead project advocacy campaigns related to the Labor Code and labor policies for vulnerable people (PwD, women, LGBT, etc.). The Project Manager should have over 10 years of direct experience working at NGOs on work related to policy advocacy, labor and gender. S/he should have deep knowledge of the laws affecting vulnerable people. Experience working with vulnerable people is preferred. S/he must have strong project management skills.

If you are interested in this position, please submit an application along with a cover letter and bio to Ms. Phan Kieu Anh at kakenanvn@gmail.com and CC: Giang@kenan-asia.org before 21st April 2019.
