

Monthly meeting: Current State of Climate Change Adaptation in Vietnam. From Best Practices to National Adaptation Plan (NAP)

Date: 9th Sep 2016, Friday

Time: 14:00 – 17:00

Venue: WWF office, D13 Thang Long International Village, Cau Giay District, Hanoi

Time	Item	Responsible
14:00 – 14:15	Participants & agenda introduction	CCWG
14:15 – 14:45	Presentation: Development and demonstration Ecosystem-based adaptation strategies in Ben Tre province 15' Q+A 15'	Mr. Hoang Viet, Wetland and Climate Change Coordinator, WWF
14:45- 15:10	Video clip: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DcJtXHMxo6w 15 min' Q&A 10'	WWF
15:10 – 15: 20	Short break	All participants
15:20 – 15:50	Presentation: Pilot of rice-shrimp farming adaptation to climate change, under the USAID Mekong Adaptation and Resilience to Climate Change Project 15'  Q&A 15'	Mr. Ngo Cong Chinh Director of Research Center for Disaster Risk Reduction and Climate Change AMD I
15:50 - 16:20	Presentation: Best time to take a NAP? Understanding the National Adaptation Plan (NAP) Process and the potential for integrating NGO best practices in Vietnam 15' Q&A 15'	Mrs. Thea Konstantinidis Technical advisor of CCWG
16:15- 17:00	3 Working Groups (30') tentatively on : 1. What is the contribution/advantage of engaging with NGOs in the NAP and what could their added value/specific contribution/unique selling point in the NAP be? 2. What are current obstacles that prevent VNGOS and INGOS from successfully engaging in CC policy or upscaling their adaptation practices and how could they be overcome? 3. What role can /should CCWG play? How can CCWG enable (I) NGOs to engage in a meaningful way in the NAP process? Presentation of results 5 minutes each group	Facilitated by Quoc Anh and Thea Konstantinidis
17:00	Closing	WWF

This meeting is chaired by WWF – World Wide Fund for Nature