

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Project Officer	Reports to: Deputy Chief of Party – Inclusion IIIb
Department: Inclusion IIIb	Salary Grade: 7
Location: Dong Nai or Binh Phuoc

About CRS

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is the official international humanitarian agency of the Catholic community in the United States. CRS works to save, protect, and transform lives in need in more than 100 countries, without regard to race, religion or nationality. CRS’ relief and development work is accomplished through programs of emergency response, HIV, health, agriculture, education, microfinance and peacebuilding.

CRS/Vietnam Background:

CRS has been operating in Vietnam since 1994. In partnership with Government and other organizations, CRS implements programs in 11 provinces/cities in Vietnam. The Vietnam Program has a diverse funding base in the sectors of Disabilities, Mine Action, Disaster Risk Reduction and Management, and Community-based Climate Change Adaptation.

Project Summary

CRS is implementing the Inclusion IIIb Activity to improve the quality of life of persons with disabilities, including persons with severe physical mobility, cognitive, or developmental disabilities that may be related to the use of Agent Orange and exposure to dioxin in the two provinces: Binh Phuoc and Dong Nai. In this USAID-funded Activity, CRS, as a prime, partners with implementing sub-recipients.

Job Summary

As a member of the Inclusion IIIb project team, you will monitor and report on all project activities in support of CRS’s work serving the poor and vulnerable. Your thorough and service-oriented approach will ensure that the project consistently applies best practices and constantly works towards improving the impact of its benefits to those we serve. This is a remote, home-based position located in either Dong Nai or Binh Phuoc province.

Roles and Key Responsibilities

- Monitor and report any challenges and/or gaps identified to inform adjustments to plans and implementation schedules. Assist partners in their efforts to reflect on project experiences.
- Support accountability through coordinating project evaluation activities and assisting partners in their efforts to collect and analyze project data per specified mechanisms and tools. Collaborate with local partner(s) to prepare reports per established reporting schedule.
- Collect information on staff capacity needs and technical assistance needs of partner organizations and monitor capacity building and technical support activities to ensure effective impact.
- Complete project documentation for assigned activities. Assist with identifying information for case studies and reports on promising practices.

Basic Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Community Development, Social Sciences, Public Health or related fields.
- Minimum of 2 years of work experience in project support. Experience in the field of disability or health programming and for an INGO would be a plus.
- Additional experience may substitute for some education.

Required Languages – Good spoken and written English

Travel - Must be willing and able to travel up to 35%.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities

- Observation, active listening and analysis skills with ability to make sound judgment
- Good relationship management skills and the ability to work closely with local partners and community members
- Attention to details, accuracy and timeliness in executing assigned responsibilities
- Proactive, results-oriented and service-oriented

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience in working with government partners and coordination with multiple project stakeholders.
- Experience in participatory action planning and community engagement.
- Experience monitoring projects and collecting relevant data preferred.
- Experience using MS Windows and MS Office packages (Excel, Word, PowerPoint).

Agency REDI Competencies (for all CRS Staff)

Agency competencies clarify expected behaviors and attitudes for all staff. When demonstrated, they create an engaging workplace, help staff achieve their best, and help CRS achieve agency goals. These are rooted in the mission, values, and guiding principles of CRS and used by each staff member to fulfill his or her responsibilities and achieve the desired results.
